IN consequence of the attempts which are always made by knaves and impostors to palm off spurious imitations and counterfeits, as soon as the public have determined upon the value and excellence of a medicine; and, in order to secure those who wish to avail themselves of the acknowledged efficacy of Rowand's Tonic Mixture, as a thorough cure for Fever and Ague, or Bilious Intermittent Fever, against such impositions, the proprietor has concluded upon the necessity of confining the sale of the mixture, to as few established agents, in the different sections of the country, as are just sufficient to supply the regular demands. Therefore, he has the pleasure to announce to the inhabitants of Fayetteville and the other parts of the country adjacent thereto, that Mr. E. J. POETRY.

FOR THE OBSERVER.

THE WILD MOUNTAIN ROSE.

How dear to recall, is each scene of my childhood;
Fond memory dwells on its pleasures and woes,
But dearest of all, is the bray and the wildwood,
Where I pluck'd in its blushing, the wild Mountain Rose.
The Wild Mountain Rose, the dear Wild Mountain Rose,
And pluck'd in its blushing, the wild Mountain Rose.

The remembrance is fresh to each feeling and passion,
Which nought but the heart in its fondness e'er knows,
That has wander'd alone in the bray and the wildwood,
And pluck'd in its blushing, the Wild Mountain Rose.
The Wild Mountain Rose, the dear Wild Mountain Rose,
And pluck'd in its blushing, the Wild Mountain Rose.

When life, in decline, shall palsy each feeling,
Tho' steady its course as onward it goes;
Despite of itself, it will only be sealing
In memory's core, the dear Wild Mountain Rose.
The Wild Mountain Rose, the dear Wild Mountain Rose,
In memory's core, the dear Wild Mountain Rose.

FOR THE OBSERVER.

GEN. LAFAYETTE IS NO MORE.

Soon to the grave descends each honoured name
That raised their country to this blaze of fame:
Sages, that planned, and chiefs that led the way
To freedom's temple, all too soon decay,
Alike submit to one impartial doom,
Their glories closing in perpetual gloom,
Like the pale splendours of the evening, fade,
While night advances, to complete the shade.

Lafayette, 'tis for thee we shed the unpurchased tear,
Bend o'er thy tomb, and plant our laurels there:
Your acts, your life, the noblest pile transcend,
And virtue, patriot virtue, mourns her friend,
Gone to those realms, where worth may claim regard,
And gone where virtue meets her best reward.

No single art engaged his vigorous mind,
In every scene his active genius shined:
Nature in him, in honor to our age,
At once composed the soldier and the sage—
Firm to his purpose, vigilant and bold,
Detesting traitors, and despising gold,
He scorned all bribes from Britain's hostile throne,
For all his country's wrongs he held his own.

Lafayette, rest in peace: for time's impartial page
Shall raise the blush on this ungrateful age:
Long in these climes thy name shall flourish fair,
The statesman's patron and the poet's care;
Long in these climes thy memory shall remain,
And still new tributes from new ages gain,
Fair to the eye that injured honor rise—
Nor traitors triumph while the patriot dies.

Since on her plains, this generous chief expired,
Whom sages honoured and whom France admired;
Does fame no statues to his memory raise,
Nor swells one column to record his praise
Where her palmetto shades the adjacent deeps,
Affection sighs, and Carolina weeps!

Thou, who shall stray where death this chief confines,
Revere the patriot, subject of these lines:
Not from the dust the muse transcribes his name,
And more than marble shall declare his fame
Where scenes more glorious his great soul engage,
Confest thrice worthy in that closing page
When conquering time to dark oblivion calls,
The marble totters, and the column falls.

Lafayette! thy tomb while kindred hands adorn,
Let northern muses, too, inscribe your urn—
Of all, whose names on death's black list appear,
No chief, that perished, claims more grief sincere,
Not one, Columbia, that thy bosom bore,
More tears commanded, or deserved them more!
Grief at his tomb shall heave the unwearied sigh,
And honor lift the mantle to her eye:
Fame through the world his patriot name shall spread,
By heroes envied and by monarchs read:
Just, generous, brave—to each true heart allied:
The Briton's terror, and his country's pride;
For him the tears of war-worn soldiers ran,
The friend of freedom and the friend of man.

Then what is death, compared with such a tomb,
Where honor fades not, and fair virtues bloom;
When silent grief on every face appears,
The tender tribute of a nation's tears;
Ah! what is death, when deeds like his, thus claim,
The brave man's homage, and immortal fame.
O.

Communication.

To the Citizens of Richmond County.

GENTLEMEN:—The time is almost here, when you will again be called on to select, from the body of your County, suitable persons to represent your interests and views in the Legislature of 1834 and '35, and as there will, in all likelihood, be subjects of great importance before that body—subjects which may influence, in a great measure, the destinies of the State, and fix the future happiness or misery of the people, according as they are disposed of, it becomes more than usually important to ascertain the views of those who may be before the public for your suffrages in relation to them, that your views may be truly represented, and the interest of the State promoted.

The subjects to which I allude, as being probably before the next Legislature, are those of Internal Improvement, and a limited Convention of the State, for the purpose of making some important alterations in her Constitution.

It is known to you that last year, during the session of the Legislature, a body of men, denominated an Internal Improvement Convention, constituting almost the talent, the intelligence, the patriotism and worth of the State, sat in the city of Raleigh, to devise some plan for the improvement of the State. This enlightened body did accordingly devise a system of Internal Improvement, founded upon large and enlightened views of the wants and interest of the State, and memorialized the Legislature to give it effect. This they refused to do; and such was the timidity manifested by the Legislature on that occasion, that a large majority of it not only refused to give countenance to the memorial, but even to make an insignificant appropriation of money, to procure the service of suitable engineers to survey the routes proposed in the memorial, and report their probable expense, their practicability or impracticability as the case might turn out to be on examination, to the Legislature of the State.

The complete failure of this scheme, before the Legislature, set forth in memorial, induced many individuals (members of the Legislature and others) to form a meeting at the Seat of Government; unwilling to give up the cause of Internal Improvement, and deeply sensible of the practicabilty of the plan set forth in the memorial, notwithstanding its rejection. More effectually to promote the cause, they appointed a Committee in each County, who were to hold meetings at pleasure, and take such steps as might ultimately secure success. It is in pursuance of this measure, adopted by the friends of Internal Improvement last winter at the Seat of Government, that you are advertised of, and requested to give your attention to a meeting proposed to be held in the town of Rockingham on the 21st of July—put forward your best men—support them with your suffrages, and require of them a pledge of their best endeavours to promote the cause of Internal Improvement in every shape, and then, and not till then, can you, or will you, have the consolation of having discharged a duty you owe to the State, the age, and posterity.
CASSIUS.

We have said, that there was a radical fault in our policy, and it is doubtless the joint result of the course pursued by the People themselves, and of that pursued by their Representatives. The former are too careless in selecting suitable objects of public patronage, and their choice very often results in the selection of persons, who are not only unworthy, but utterly unfit and inefficient, in consequence of their total ignorance of the true policy of the State. They too generally require no political test—no earnest of political sentiment, and are willing, if the candidates for favor are good citizens, sociable and clever fellows, to presume them possessed of every other necessary prerequisite, the latter too often composed of such materials as are utterly unfit for legislation, are cringingly alive to their popularity at home, too sensible of their own insufficiency to sustain and defend an independent course, and unwilling to incur any such responsibility, remain neuter and inactive in every great political project, possessed of the least complexity, fearful of doing wrong, and too limited information, to see its magnitude, or calculate its utility; such generally coast it, with great complacency along the shore of the political ocean, repugnant to venturing beyond the wading line, or to lose sight of land, lest they should be lost in the great deep, and content themselves with such wonderfully wise measures as you will find on record in the late acts—such for instance, as the regulation of the affairs of Tick-Creek, and the protection extended to the feathered tribe of Currituck, to secure their nightly repose, and many others of a similar kind, equally rediculous and undignifying.

That the tendency of such a course on the part of the People and the Representatives, is downward, requires in our opinion, no force of argument to prove; and to sustain the position, all that we would ask you to do, is to look at home, and extend the vision abroad, and compare the picture. The result must be humiliating to every North Carolinian, who has a spark of State pride abiding in his heart. The State, in point of improvement, is, at least, behind the age a quarter of a century. Where are her navigable streams improved? her canals opened? her rail roads extended and ramified to, and in every section to nourish and sustain her political system, and unite the hearts of her people? Where are her charitable and literary institutions, to improve and advance her moral and intellectual condition? Where are her commercial Towns? her flourishing and improving villages? her cultivated and profitable farms? And lastly, where is her commerce? Alas! They exist not, or if they do, it is in so imperfect a degree, as to be of very little practical utility.

Citizens of Richmond, can you with complacency view this state of things and not come as far as you can to rescue the State from this condition? Can you, or rather will you, without a laudable effort on your part, suffer your neighbors in the North and South, who are now on the march of Internal Improvement, and pursuing it with becoming assiduity and vigour, push their works into the heart of your Republic, and make spoil of its substance and blood—a march which, if not met duly and with becoming vigour, may ultimately result in the total dismemberment of the State? If you can do this, then cease your idle prate about Internal Improvement. Quit the shadow, if you cannot come to a resolution to embrace the substance. But if disposed to discharge your duties, then attend the meeting proposed to be held in the town of Rockingham on the 21st of July—put forward your best men—support them with your suffrages, and require of them a pledge of their best endeavours to promote the cause of Internal Improvement in every shape, and then, and not till then, can you, or will you, have the consolation of having discharged a duty you owe to the State, the age, and posterity.
CASSIUS.

Straws, &c.—Within the last week or two, six new papers have been established by the title of Whig, viz: The American Whig, at New York; the Oneida Whig, in Oneida county, New York; the Whig, at Westchester, Pennsylvania; the Franklin Whig, at Chambersburg, Pennsylvania; the Morris County Whig, at Morristown, New Jersey; the Indiana Whig, at Laurenceburg, Indiana.

Hercules, Jun.—Signor Schiarra, the Italian, now exhibiting at Walnut street Theatre, is one of the most extraordinary wonders of the day. His feats of strength are certainly the most marvellous efforts ever witnessed in this city. He will lift ten, and in some instances, twenty times as much as any other person. It is said he can balance any thing but the Post Office accounts.
Philad. Intell.

NEW YORK, June 10.

Alarming Accident.—A young lady of color last evening returning from the African church, through Leonard street, suddenly fell down upon the pavement. Several humane gentlemen assisted in raising her up, when she seemed to appearance dead. A physician was sent for, cologne water, hartshorn, &c. all proved unavailing, until a colored gentleman, one of her acquaintance, recognized her, and immediately remarked, "Ah, I know what ails her; she is laced up too tight." The whole machinery of the corsage being, sans ceremonie, cut away, the lady sprung upon her feet perfectly restored.—Star.

Blanks, Twine and Wrapping Paper.—[The Editor of the Concord (N. H.) Courier gives the following account of the manner in which the contracts for the supply of the Post Offices with these important articles were distributed among the rival claimants. It will remind the reader of the scene in Henry VI., where Hotspur, Glendower and Mortimer meet to parcel out the English territory.]

We know something of the manner in which this printing of blanks and furnishing of wrapping paper and twine was obtained by Nathaniel Greene of Boston, and Isaac Hill of this place, and we will now give a history of it, as we understood it at the time it was obtained, for it will throw some light upon the manner in which the business of the Department has been done.

The United States are divided into districts as it respects Mail Contracts and the printing of blanks for the Post Office Department, and New England did, until 1831, form one of these divisions; but New York was then added to New England, so far as the furnishing of blanks, wrapping paper and twine was concerned. The contracts for doing this business have usually been made for the term of four years. In 1824, Postmaster General McLean advertised for proposals for furnishing the Post Offices in New England with blanks, &c., and received very many proposals for that purpose, the most favorable of which was made by Mr. Ide of Vermont. But, favorable as it was to the Government, we believe, nevertheless, that Mr. Ide cleared in the business in four years $10,000.

Early in 1831, at the request of a very enterprizing printer in this place, the Editor of this paper wrote to Gov. Woodbury, desiring him to ascertain at the Post Office Department the prices paid for blanks, wrapping paper, twine, &c. to Mr. Ide, and also, whether or no proposals would be called for as usual; to which Gov. W. gave early and careful attention, and we were given to understand, that at a proper time proposals would be solicited through the public papers as usual.—Accordingly preparations were made by the printer above alluded to, to obtain, if possible, by fair means the contract; and we were to go to Washington with the proposals, and a suitable bond in case the proposals should prove successful. Being thus engaged, we watched the movements of the Postmaster General with some little care, until we learned that Mr. Hill and Mr. Greene had prevailed upon him and the President not to let proposals be advertised for, but to appoint some one to do it as printer to the Department.

As soon as it was determined that no proposals would be solicited, Mr. Greene, of Boston, came to Concord, and urged Mr. Hill to agree to divide with him the district, so that Mr. Hill should have Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont; while Mr. Greene was to have Massachusetts, Rhode Island, and Connecticut. To this Mr. Hill would not agree, as he believed he could obtain the whole district for Horatio Hill & Barton, which he said would enable them to pay him the $7000 which they were to give him for the N. H. Patriot. This determination of Mr. Hill did not please Mr. Greene, the Boston Postmaster, and he left Concord and returned, as was supposed, to Boston, very much offended with Mr. Hill, and not a little disappointed; but he repaired immediately to Washington, and made such efforts there that he was upon the point of receiving the whole of New England, when Mr. Hill arrived at Washington to secure for Hill & Barton the appointment.

On his arrival at Washington, the quarrel about the 'spoils' was renewed by Messrs. Hill & Greene, and the former accused the latter of great unfairness, but the latter defended himself by saying that he had formerly offered a fair division, but that now he should get what he could. However, a plan was agreed upon soon, which ended the quarrel; it was to add New York to New England, and let Mr. Greene give up Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont to Mr. Hill, and divide New York between them.—Mr. Greene took the City of New York and all the lower part of the State, dividing by a line between two tiers of counties, from somewhere North of Albany and running to the west line of the State, while Mr. Hill took the Northerly counties, making the bargain worth nearly four times as much to Greene as to Hill. The business thus arranged between them, they went to Major Barry, and took out their appointments, and thus cut off all competition in the business. They allowed Washington prices for all this great undertaking; and these two pure disinterested patriots received annually, in this one item of patronage, $18,725 50, for doing what might have been done for about $9000 by contract. Here is corruption with a witness!

We have stated this matter precisely as we understood it at the time; and if we have erred in any one thing, if the Patriot will set us right, we will correct it most willingly.

We ask them either to admit its truth or deny its correctness.

LEXINGTON, (Ky.) May 20.—Homicide.—On Saturday night last, a man named Williamson came to his death in this city, by the discharge of a musket loaded with shot, in the hands of his wife. An examination was had before the Mayor on Sunday morning, and the evidence being such as to induce the impression, that the woman was acting in defence of herself from the apprehended assaults of the deceased, she was discharged.

The following amusing dialogue occurred between two sailors who happened to be on the military parade when the soldiers were at drill, going through the evolution of marking time—a military manœuvre by which the feet, as well as the whole body of the person, are kept in motion, presenting a similiar appearance to that which they exhibit when they are actually marching. One observed the other watching the corps very attentively, with his eyes fixed and his arms a kimbo: "What are you looking at?" he inquired. "Why Jack," replied his companion, "I'm thinking there must be a strong tide running this morning." "Why?" asked the other: "Why, because these poor beggars have been pulling away this half hour, and haven't got an inch ahead yet."

Large and valuable Cargo.—The fine ship Solon, Capt. Lambert, of Portsmouth N. H. for Liverpool, being her first voyage, was cleared on Saturday morning by L. Trapman, with a cargo of 1900 bales Cotton, weighing 618,697 lbs. and valued at $101,151 89.—Charles. Patriot.

IN SENATE.

Friday evening, June 27.

Mr. EWING resumed his remarks, in illustration of the resolutions reported by the Committee on the Post Office, and continued for about half an hour; when

Mr. GRUNDY replied to the observations of the Senator from Ohio, occupying the Senate until near six o'clock.

Mr. WRIGHT then made some observations on the state of the business before the Senate, and the number of bills to be acted on, moved to lay the subject on the table.

The motion was negatived.

Mr. CLAYTON then made some remarks, which occupied nearly an hour.

Mr. EWING added a few explanations in reference to the participation of Dr. Temple (a clerk in the Department) in a contract, and also as to the increased mail facilities, which, he contended, if justifiable and judicious, would increase, not diminish, the revenue.

After some further debate, in which Mr. CLAY, Mr. GRUNDY, Mr. ROBINSON, and Mr. EWING took part, the question was taken on a motion of Mr. EWING, to strike out the last resolution as reported, and to insert an amendment directing the Committee to inquire, in the recess, and report the number of Editors of newspapers, who have mail contracts; the amount of allowance paid them; the number who have mail routes with newspaper privilege; and the names and number of travelling agents, and the sums paid them.

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. EWING asked for a division of the question upon the resolutions: which was agreed to.

After some remarks from Messrs. GRUNDY, CLAYTON, EWING, WEBSTER, CLAY, ROBINSON, and BENTON—

Mr. WEBSTER said he would propose to take the question on the first resolution, which related to the borrowing of money by the Department, and, after that, as the minds of all the gentlemen were not made up upon questions embraced in the other resolutions, he would move to lay the remainder of the resolutions on the table.

The question was then taken on agreeing to the first resolution reported by the Committee in the words following:

"Resolved, That it is proved and admitted that large sums of money have been borrowed at different Banks, by the Postmaster General, in order to make up the deficiency in the means of carrying on the business of the Post Office Department, without authority given by any law of Congress; and that, as Congress alone possesses the power to borrow money on the credit of the U. S., all such contracts for loans by the Postmaster General are illegal and void."

And decided as follows:

Yeas—Messrs. Benton, Bibb, Black, Brown, Calhoun, Chambers, Clay, Clayton, Ewing, Frelinghuysen, Forsyth, Grundy, Hendricks, Hill, Kane, Kent, King of Ala., King of Geo., Knight, Linn, Mangum, Moore, Naudain, Poindexter, Porter, Prentiss, Preston, Robbins, Robinson, Shepley, Silsbee, Smith, Southard, Sprague, Swift, Tomlinson, Tyler, Waggaman, Webster, White, Wright—41.

Nays—None.

So the resolution was unanimously agreed to.

Mr. Webster congratulated the Senate on the unanimity with which the vote had been given upon this proposition. He now, according to notice, moved to lay the remaining resolutions on the table; which motion was agreed to.

EVENING SESSION—SATURDAY, JUNE 28.

The Vice President did not take the Chair at the opening of the Evening Session.

On motion of Mr. Webster the Senate proceeded to the election of a President pro tem.

On the first ballotting the whole number of votes being 42, and 22 being necessary to a choice, there were—for

Mr. Poindexter	21	Mr. Frelinghuysen	1
Mr. King of Ala.	14	Mr. Waggaman	1
Mr. Bibb	1	Mr. Tyler	1
Mr. Clay	1	Blanks	2

There being no choice, the Senate proceeded to a second ballot, the result of which was declared as follows:

Whole number of votes 40.—Necessary to a choice 21.

Mr. Poindexter	20	Mr. Waggaman	1
Mr. King of Ala.	13	Mr. Tyler	3
Mr. Bibb	1	Mr. Calhoun	1
Mr. Clay	1

There being no choice, the Senate proceeded to a third ballot, the result of which was declared as follows:

Whole number of votes 42.—Necessary to a choice 22

Mr. Poindexter	22	Mr. Tyler	7
Mr. King of Ala.	10	Mr. Bibb	1
Mr. Frelinghuysen	1	Mr. Waggaman	1

So Mr. Poindexter was declared duly elected President pro tem. and was conducted to the chair, by Mr. Chambers. From his seat in the Chair Mr. Poindexter then rose and addressed the Senate to the following effect:

Senators: Penetrated with the most profound sense of gratitude for the kind manifestation of your confidence in calling me to preside over the deliberations of this honorable body, I rise to express to you my thanks, and the unfeigned diffidence with which I enter upon the discharge of the arduous and delicate duties assigned to me. Unskilled in the technical rules of parliamentary proceedings, I feel sensible of my own defects, and that, on all occasions of doubt and difficulty, I must rely on the indulgence of the Senate, and the friendly aid of those Senators who have more experience in such matters than myself. Permit me, gentlemen, to assure you, that for the few remaining hours of the present session, and so long as I may occupy the Chair, it shall be my constant endeavor to meet your just expectations, and to preserve the order and decorum of debate, so necessary to the harmony and dignity of every deliberative assembly, and to the despatch of the important business which may be brought to the consideration of the Senate.

On motion of Mr. Silsbee, the bill making appropriations for building light houses, placing light vessels, &c. was taken up; and the amendments of the Committee having been gone through with—

Mr. MANGUM submitted an amendment making an appropriation for purchasing a site for a Hospital near Wilmington, in North Carolina; which was adopted—ayes 19, noes 11.

After provision had been made for Hospitals at a number of other places, Mr. Kane moved to reconsider the votes on all of them, which was agreed to, and they were all then rejected, and the bill was laid on the table.

Monday, June 30.

Mr. WEBSTER presented a memorial from citizens of Boston, correcting errors in the signatures of the anti-Bank memorial of that city, by which the 3,600 names of alledged Bostonians are reduced to 1,130, and stating that the living and the dead, the citizens of all towns, and several States, are contained in that memorial. The memorial was referred, and ordered to be printed.

The Senate proceeded to consider the resolution offered by Mr. Southard, instructing the Committee on Finance to sit during the recess, in order to investigate the condition of the Banks in which the public deposites are made.

Mr. HILL asked for the Yeas and Nays; which were ordered.

Mr. KING, of Alabama, objected to the instructions, and asked for further explanations to show its necessity.

Mr. SOUTHARD replied, that the public treasure was in danger; and if there was any object which could require the attention of a Committee during the recess, it was this. The Committee of Finance had been instructed to obtain information, and had not yet been able to gain it for want of time. It was to enable the Committee to act at all, that this proposition was made.

Mr. KING made some further remarks in reply.

The question was then taken and decided as follows:

YEAS—Messrs. Bibb, Chambers, Clay, Ewing, Frelinghuysen, Knight, Leigh, Mangum, Moore, Naudain, Poindexter, Porter, Robbins, Silsbee, Smith, Southard, Sprague, Tomlinson, Waggaman, Webster—20.

NAYS—Messrs. Grundy, Hendricks, Hill, King of Alabama, Kane, King of Georgia, Robinson, Shepley, Tallmadge, Tipton, White, Wright—12.

So the resolution was agreed to.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Saturday, June 28, 1834.

The following gentlemen were announced to compose the Committee to sit in the recess to investigate the affairs of the Post Office:

Messrs. Conner, Polk, Whittlesey, H. Everett, Beardsley, Watmough, and Hawes.

Mr. Polk said, he must respectfully ask the favor of the House to excuse him from serving as a member of this committee.

Mr. Polk was excused, and Mr. Stoddert appointed in his place upon the Committee.

Mr. R. M. JOHNSON asked the consent of the House to permit him to offer a resolution embracing a vote of thanks, for his services, to the late Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Several members objected.

Mr. CROCKETT said: I go against the resolution altogether, and I am ready to state why I do so. I am not inclined to adopt a vote of thanks to any man, without knowing what for, or being satisfied they are deserved.

Mr. R. M. JOHNSON having moved that the House suspend the rules to enable him to present the resolution—

Mr. BURGES called for the Yeas and Nays on the motion to suspend; which were ordered and taken as follows: Yeas 87, Nays 51, (not two-thirds.)

In the course of the evening, a Resolution was introduced by Mr. Speight, of North Carolina, for presenting the thanks of the House to the Hon. Andrew Stevenson, late Speaker of the House of Representatives for the faithful, industrious, dignified and impartial manner in which he discharged the duties of the Chair; and the Resolution was agreed to, by Yeas and Nays, 97 votes to 49.

Washington, June 30.

The Debate which we mentioned in our last to be depending in the Senate, on Friday evening, at the time of the Saturday's newspaper going to press, returned upon the report of the Post Office Committee. That debate ended in a vote, carried with entire unanimity, affirming the illegality and voidness of all the loans which have been made by the General Post Office or any of its several heads. Here, then, is one abuse, at least, and an enormous one, which was concealed by its authors, until the Senate ferreted it out, which all parties concur in signally reproving.

In Executive sitting, on the same evening, the nomination of John Forsyth, of Georgia, to be Secretary of State, and Levi Woodbury, of N. Hampshire, to be Secretary of the Treasury, were received by the Senate, and immediately confirmed without a division.

We learn that, on Saturday evening, Lion Dickerson, of New Jersey, (who was appointed Minister to Russia,) was appointed by the President to the Senate for the office of Secretary of the Navy. The nomination has not yet been acted upon.

The nomination of Wm. Hunter, of Rhode Island, to be Charge d'Affaires at Rio Janeiro, was confirmed the same evening; so was that of Humphrey H. Leavitt, a Representative in Congress) to be District Judge of the United States for the District of Ohio.

Benjamin Pollard, of Virginia, has been appointed, with consent of the Senate, Charge d'Affaires of the U. States at Buenos Ayres.

The Senate sat on Saturday evening till 11 o'clock, and the House of Representatives sat until two hours past midnight, both bodies earnestly engaged in business, the House of Representatives, every bill which has passed the Senate was acted on, except two not reported from the Committees; a circumstance unprecedented in the history of Congress within one session of it.

Our readers may be curious to learn the fate of the bill of the House of Representatives for regulating the deposites of public money. It has not been acted upon in the Senate since it was reported in that body with an amendment which proposes a substitute for the whole bill. It is not likely, we think, that the subject will be stirred again.

Mr. Clayton (of Delaware) having been excused from serving on the Senate Committee for Investigating the Affairs of the Post Office Department, Mr. Southard, (of New Jersey) has been appointed by the Senate to take his place. The Committee, it will be recollected, is to continue its investigation during the recess of Congress. We understand that the Committee propose to meet in this city, on the 15th September, to perform the duties assigned to them.

Nat. Intelligencer.

Washington, July

Yesterday, though the last day of session, was, contrary to all expectation, a real working day. Many bills passed their final reading, in the Senate especially. In the preceding columns some incidents of the day are noted, omitting the specification of most of the bills passed, because they will be found in the List of Acts, also contained in the preceding columns, which List we have been at great trouble to procure and make as perfect as possible. To this List we must refer our readers for information of the business actually completed during the session.

The Senate sat to a late hour on Executive business, of which they had much before them. Of what was done, we only hear before the paper's going to press, that the nomination of Mahlon Dickerson was confirmed; and that William Wilkins, a Senator from Pennsylvania was appointed by the President, with the consent of the Senate, to be Minister to Russia, vice Dickerson.

The House of Representatives brought business to a close by 3 o'clock, but the Senate having a large mass of nominations to act on afterwards, the adjournment of the two Houses did not take place until 7 o'clock P. M. when the session was closed.

Nat. Intelligencer.

Although with extreme reluctance, Jacksonites confess that the Post Office Department has been miserably mis-managed. Mr. Forsyth, one of the most strenuous defenders of the administration said in the Senate, that "there was one point on which there seemed to be a universality of opinion. It appeared that money had been borrowed by the Department, without the authority of Congress. THIS WAS CERTAINLY A VIOLATION OF LAW, AND AN ABUSE."

Such is the confession which a Jackson partizan has felt himself compelled to make in the Senate of the U. States!!

Those who are honest in the support of this administration will now see that the Whigs do not complain of "violations of law" and "abuses" without reason.

Blasphemy.—We called attention, the other day, to the blasphemous adulation of the Jackson press to their Chief. The following of yesterday, in noticing the rejection by the Senate of Mr. Taney, holds the following language:

"The cry has been bring him forth, "crucify him," and when it was asked "what hath he done?" they "stopped their ears" to reason and justice, and cried more furiously than ever "crucify him, crucify him."

But "he will rise again."

Is there a man—we will not say a christian—is there a man with a particle of regard for a christian's feelings, who would not shudder at such a desecration, and treat with contempt, if not with other feelings, the blasphemous wretch who thus outrages decency and insults the feelings of the community. The French Revolution attempted to put down a belief in a God, by destroying the worship: the editor of the Globe is proceeding to the same end, by attempting to raise a man to the rank of a deity.—U. S. Gaz.

The fire in the Treasury Department seems likely to answer much the same purpose for the Treasury officers, that the fire in the old castle of Ravenswood, in the Bride of Lammermoor, did to the old steward, Caleb Balderstone: "Now, this fire," said Caleb, "for a fire it shall be, if I should burn the old stable to make it mair fessen" —this fire, besides that it will be an excuse for asking ony thing we want through the country—this fire will settle mony things on an honorable footing for the family's credit that cost me telling twenty daily lies to wheen idle chaps and queans, and what worse, without gaining credence."

OBSERVER.

FAYETTEVILLE:

TUESDAY EVENING, JULY 8, 1834.

We are authorized to announce JONATHAN EVANS, Esq. as a candidate to represent this County in the Senate of our State Legislature.

Our Rail Road.—We are much gratified to state, that, under the superintendence of the energetic President of the Rail Road Company, (Jas. Seawell, Esq.) this work is progressing rapidly, and that the portion now in progress of execution, (say through the limits of the town,) will be completed in the course of a few weeks. A part of the work, about half a mile in length, is already completed, and we have had the pleasure, with hundreds of our fellow citizens, of enjoying a ride upon it. Such of our friends from the country, as desire to see with their own eyes, what can be accomplished by the power of one horse upon a rail road, would do well to pay it a visit. They may there see thirty persons, in a car weighing as much as themselves, altogether about 7 or 8000 lbs. drawn with ease by one horse.

The road is constructed in the most simple and economical manner. It is worth a visit from those who have not enjoyed the pleasure of seeing this modern wonder.

The 4th of July was celebrated in this place with the usual demonstrations of patriotic feeling. The firing of cannon; the ringing of bells; the beautiful display of our several highly disciplined Military Companies; the formation of a large procession; and the assemblage of a still larger company of Ladies and Gentlemen at the Presbyterian Church; the reading of the Declaration of Independence by John Winslow, Esq. and the delivery of an eloquent Oration by James C. Dobbin, Esq; all attested to the deep and lively interest which this community has always felt and still cherishes, in the perpetuation of the blessings secured to us by the deed thus commemorated.

Funeral Honors to Lafayette.—Our readers will see by the arrangements in another column, that a most interesting ceremony will be performed in this town on Saturday next. It is expected that it will bring together a large concourse of the citizens of the town and county.

Mr. Barry has published an Address to the People of the United States, in reply to the Report of the Committee of the Senate on the state of the Post Office. It is, we regret to find, in very bad temper, abounding with charges against the Committee of having published "errors, misrepresentations, falsehoods, and base personal allusions and imputations." We do not see any thing in this laboured pamphlet of 24 pages, to clear up any of the charges against the Department, or to prove that it is not totally insolvent. Mr. Barry attempts to justify his borrowing money, but it seems that his own party will not sustain him in that position, as will be seen by reference to the vote in the Senate, on the resolution declaring these loans illegal and void, which was unanimously adopted—even Bedford Brown and Isaac Hill voting for it.

CONGRESS.—A list of the acts passed and a notice of the doings of the last days of the session, will be found on the preceding page.

The British Brig Industry, Capt. McNeill, for Liverpool, ran ashore on the Main Bar, on the evening of the 21st ult. The vessel is entirely lost—most of the cargo saved, though a part is considerably damaged. Capt. McNeill states that he has no fault to find with the inlet, there being plenty of water. The accident was entirely owing to a want of Buoys to mark the channel.—This deficiency we expect, will be speedily supplied.

Wilmington Press.

New Hampshire.—The Hon. Henry Hubbard, now a member of the House of Representatives, has been chosen Senator in Congress for 6 years, from the 3d of March next, in the place of Mr. Bell, whose term of service then expires.

The vote for Mr. Hubbard stood—in the Senate, unanimous; in the House of Representatives, 127; Bartlett, 59; Scattering, 27.

Worse and worse.—The Norfolk Herald of Monday, asserts, that "Mr. Speaker Stevenson appeared before his constituents at the election in April, 1833, and being charged with having had a promise of the English Mission, flatly denied that he had the promise or expectation of any office whatever from the Executive of the U. States!" The proceedings in the Senate show that he was then actually in possession of the promise, written by Mr. Livingston, by "direction" of the President, and dated the 15th of March, in the year above named.—Alas for the virtue and truth of drilled and collared partisans!

More Rumours.—A gentleman who writes from Washington, says: "There is a rumour circulating in this city, that General Jackson intends to resign immediately after the adjournment. It is not true. He will however immediately retire to Nashville, never, as I believe, to return to Washington. He will not resign, however, until after the approaching Congressional elections."

The New York Advocate of Tuesday says:—

"We regret to have to state, that the boiler of the locomotive engine, recently placed on the Harlem Rail Road, burst yesterday afternoon as the engine was starting from Yorkville, with two cars attached.—The boiler was thrown in pieces against the rock in the narrow passage, and a piece which rebounded, struck and killed a passenger sitting on the top of the forward car. The engineer was wounded,

FUNERAL HONORS TO LAFAYETTE.

Fayetteville, July 1st, 1834.

A respectable number of the citizens of this place, convened at the Town Hall this afternoon, to adopt measures for noticing, in an appropriate manner, a late melancholy event—the death of the illustrious LAFAYETTE. The meeting was organized by the appointment of Dr. Thomas N. Cameron, Chairman, and Benjamin W. Robinson, Secretary. The object of the meeting having been stated in a pertinent address from the Chair, on motion, a committee consisting of Dr. Dickson, Col. Cochran, Esek Arnold, Thomas L. Hybart and Warren Winslow, Esqs., was appointed, to draft a preamble and resolutions expressive of the feelings of this meeting, whereupon they reported the following, which were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, it hath pleased the Almighty Disposer of events, to terminate the mortal career of that illustrious Patriot—the great, the good LAFAYETTE—and whereas, it is at all times proper and becoming publicly to express our veneration for departed worth and virtue,

Be it unanimously Resolved, That the citizens of Fayetteville, while they bow in silent resignation to the wise decrees of Providence, are penetrated with the most heartfelt sorrow under this severe affliction and bereavement: that in the death of LAFAYETTE—the generous Hero who periled life and property in our cause—the Companion in Arms of the beloved Father of his Country—the friend of freedom in every clime, whom the splendours of royalty could not corrupt, nor the dungeons of Olmutz contaminate, this Republic hath lost a distinguished Citizen—France a favorite Son, and the World a Benefactor.

Resolved, That the Citizens of Fayetteville do offer their sincere condolence to George Washington Lafayette, and the immediate family of his illustrious sire, under this severe dispensation of Providence.

Resolved, That for the purpose of paying a proper tribute to the memory of LAFAYETTE, a committee of thirty persons be appointed to make suitable arrangements to carry into effect the objects of this meeting, and that they be requested to procure an Eulogium to be pronounced upon the character and virtues of the illustrious deceased, at such time and place as the Committee may agree upon.

Resolved, That a copy of the proceedings of this meeting, signed by the Chairman and attested by the Secretary, be forwarded to George Washington Lafayette.

Resolved, That the citizens of the Town of Fayetteville and County of Cumberland, be requested to wear crape upon the left arm, for the space of thirty days.

The Committee of Arrangements appointed agreeably to the requisition of the 3d Resolution, consists of Messrs. I. Blake, Sen., Jno. Lumsden, David Anderson, Rob. Cochran, Sen., Duncan Mac Rae, Jno. M Dobbin, M. R Willkings, Jas. Seawell, J. W. Wright, Jno. Huske, Dr. Cameron, Dr. Dickson, O. P. Stark, Joseph Baker, E. J. Hale, T. L. Hybart, E. L. Winslow, W. Winslow, E. Arnold, E. W. Willkings, Gen'l. Ayer, Col. Hooper, Col. Hawley, Col. McRae, Maj. Jones, Maj. Strong, Capt. McLeran, Capt. Howell, Capt. Goodwin, Capt. Belden.

On motion, Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be published in the Fayetteville Observer and North Carolina Journal.

On motion, the meeting adjourned.

THOMAS N. CAMERON, Chairman.
BENJ. W. ROBINSON, Secretary.

At a meeting of the above Committee, held immediately after the adjournment of the Town Meeting, it was

Resolved, That the Hon. ROBERT STRANGE be requested to deliver a Eulogium on the character of Lafayette, on Saturday the 12th inst. That a Military and Civic Procession be formed on that day, in which the Military and Citizens of the Town and County be requested to unite.

The Committee appointed to make the necessary arrangements to carry into effect the wishes of the Citizens of this place, in paying funeral honors to the memory of Gen'l Lafayette, beg leave to recommend, that a procession be formed on Rowan street at 9 o'clock, A. M. on Saturday, the 12th inst., and move from thence to the Presbyterian Church, under the command of Gen. Ayer, as Marshal, and Col. Cochran, Maj. Jones, Maj. Strong, Capt. E. L. Winslow, Capt. Jordan, and Capt. Sandford, as assistant Marshals, in the following order.

Military Companies in open column, with flags shrouded and drums muffled.

12. The Masonic Fraternity.
13. High Sheriff and Officers of the Court.
14. Magistrates of the County.

The day will be ushered in by a discharge of thirteen guns, fired in quick succession, at sun-rise, at which time the National Flag will be hoisted at the Town House shrouded in mourning. One gun to be fired at intervals of 30 minutes during the day. The Bells to be tolled from the time the Procession moves until it reaches its place of destination. That the citizens of the Town be requested to close their stores and suspend all business during the day.

The firing of a gun at sun-set, will be the signal for lowering the Flag at the Town House.

The Bank of the U. States has come to the determination not to curtail its business, for the next six months, and has issued orders to that effect to the respective branches. The collar presses have become more furious than ever in consequence of this determination; the bank can do nothing to please them, whether it acts according to the suggestions of the President, and winds up its business, or according to the more humane policy of extending its accommodations, it is all the same; the tories cannot get at its vaults, and it must go down.—Pittsburg Advocate.

It may be gratifying to the Van Buren Regency party in this State to learn that our Attorney General, R. M. Saunders, Esq., Commissioner under the Convention with France, &c. returned to this city from Washington in the early part of this week, and soon after his arrival purchased the type and other printing materials attached to the establishment of the "Constitutionalist," the late "organ of the party" in North Carolina; and that it may therefore be expected that another paper of the same character will forthwith be commenced under the superintendence of an Editor who has been engaged at the North. It may also be presumed that the Laws of Congress, which have been published in but two papers in this State during the present year, will then be promulgated in three, as provided for by law.—Ral. Star.

We have before us a copy of the pamphlet entitled 'The War on the Bank of the United States, or A Review of the measures of the Administration against that institution and the prosperity of the country.' It has just come from the press of Messrs. Key & Biddle, and consists of 155 pages, in good type. This work strikes us as altogether the best compendium of the important topics to which it is devoted. The facts of the whole case, and the argumentative considerations belonging to them, are forcibly stated in regular and lucid order; and illustrated or corroborated by extracts from principal speeches of members of Congress, on the subject.—Nat. Gazette.

New Bank.—There is scarcely room for doubt, that the whole of the Stock of this Institution has been taken since the re-opening of the Books, though full returns have not been received. Of the remaining 2,374 Shares authorized to be subscribed for, more than 1100 have been entered on the Book of subscriptions in this City, alone.

Mr. B. B SMITH has been appointed Treasurer of the Company, vice Mr. JOHN PRIMROSE, resigned.—Raleigh Register.

The Rahway Advocate contains the following jeux d'esprit.

A large importing merchant states that the orders for blankets last year amounted to 1,400 bales, but this year only 400 are ordered. We repeat that the diminution of the revenue at the last quarter will astound the people of this country. The first duty of Congress, early in December, will be to provide ways and means, in shape of a loan or aid from the United States Bank. It will come to this at last.

Episcopal School.—We are gratified to state that this School, the operations of which commenced less than a month ago, has so increased its numbers as to render the immediate erection of another Building necessary.—Ral. Reg.

Cholera at Cincinnati.—The Cincinnati Intelligencer of the 23d ult. says: "We hear of repeated cases of cholera in this city, some of which have proved fatal. Many complain of the premonitory symptoms."

Raising and removing brick houses is a business very successfully carried on in this city, and is a great curiosity in a scientific point of view. Carrying back a large five story fire proof store ten feet, or making a brick house face another street, would at one time have been considered an extraordinary undertaking. We were admiring the ease and security with which the handsome two story brick house, 210 Bowery, was raised by screws and blocks to a height so as to enable the owner to build another story under it, and when completed, it will be a substantial 3 story house. The raising of this house was done by Geo. Bakewell, 177 Elizabeth street, and not a wall was cracked or a timber out of place.—N. Y. Star.

We learned yesterday, that the body of A. Foucher, Jr. who had been guilty of the extensive forgeries mentioned by us some weeks ago, was found in the rear of the plantation of B. St. Arnaud, on the coast. It appears that the unfortunate man put an end to his existence by shooting himself through the head. When he was found by negroes working in the woods, he had been dead already some days, as the body was so corrupted, that it was found impossible to remove it.—Mer. Adv.

Crops of small Grain.—We are much gratified to learn, that in the Western counties generally, the Wheat and Rye crops are made nearly beyond the reach of contingencies; that they are abundant and of fine quality, and if we can only have a good season for harvesting, our garners will be full to overflowing. The oat crop too, is thus far VERY GOOD. Our meadows have just been shorn of a most luxuriant crop of grass, and the weather has been uncommonly fine for curing it. Coming, as all these blessings do upon the heels of remarkable scarcity and distress, our hearts should be constrained to gratitude.—Car. Watchman.

DELAWARE AND RARITAN CANAL.—This important work has at length been completed, and the water let into the Canal during its whole length. This work is 73 miles long, 75 feet wide, and 7 feet deep. It commences at Bordentown on the Delaware, and terminates near New Brunswick on the Raritan. It has two tow paths, and will admit the passage of vessels not exceeding 100 tons; thus affording a short and safe water communication between New York and Philadelphia. This canal was commenced in January, 1831, and has 14 locks, 13 of which are 24 by 110 feet, and one still larger.—Commer. Herald.

Valuable Land for Sale.

THE Subscriber offers for sale his valuable freehold, situated in the North Western extremity of Robeson County; it contains between 1,500 and 2,000 acres lying on both sides of Lowrie's Swamp. The Stage Road from Fayetteville to Cheraw passes over a skirt of it, within two hundred yards of the Dwelling House, which is 27 miles from Fayetteville. There are about one hundred and fifty acres under cultivation. The land is generally level, yet much of it, and especially the cultivated part, has a gently undulating surface; the texture and fertility of the soil are adapted to the culture of Corn, Wheat, Cotton, &c. Great advances have been made in reclaiming the Swamp above mentioned, by ditching, &c.; so far as it has been tried, it is found to be very productive in Corn, Tobacco and Grass. These may be seen growing upon it this year in high perfection. It has yielded over twelve barrels of corn to the acre. A similar product is expected from it this year. The arts of irrigation may be practiced with ease and success in the dryest seasons. The range will support a large stock of black cattle and several hundred head of sheep two thirds of the year.

Fruit Trees abound in great variety and of choicest kind. There is also a flourishing little Vineyard, whose purple clusters annually load the mantling vines. The Scenery around the dwelling may be rendered highly ornamental. The Place, it is believed, is as healthy as any in the State.

Any person knowing and pursuing the advantages of this Place, must accumulate, if he is not a spendthrift.

VALUABLE PROPERTY FOR SALE.

THE Subscriber, being desirous of removing to the West, offers for sale all his

Lands and Tenements

In the counties of Cumberland and Robeson. Lands in Cumberland are well known, being formerly held and owned by Captain Lord, on east side of the Cape Fear River, and opposite the town of Fayetteville;—a particular description of which I deem unnecessary, as persons disposed to purchase will view and examine for themselves. It may however, be well to remark, that nearly all those lands lie within one, two and three miles of the town of Fayetteville, that they are very heavily and heavily timbered, and contain in quantity about 2300 acres; two or three hundred acres which is arable land, and under a tolerable state of and is as well adapted to the growth of Cotton, Corn, &c. as any lands in the vicinity of Fayetteville. Upon those lands there are certain improvements consisting of a convenient

DWELLING HOUSE,

And all other necessary out houses in good repair; several of the buildings being entirely new. There is also a SAW MILL and GRIST MILL and an eligible site for another Mill, all within half mile of the River, and a plentiful supply of Timber near at hand. In Campbellton or Lafayetteville, I offer for sale all my Lots with improvements thereon, consisting of the Fayetteville Warehouse and other Warehouses, &c. Wharf above the Ferry landing and one half of Ferry known as Lord & Dixon's Ferry. Also lot near Mrs. Hawley's containing five acres. I also offer for sale, Woodstock, my Family Mansion, a new and commodious building near the mount and about a mile from the Town of with all the improvements upon the lot, consisting a good Kitchen, Stable, Carriage House, &c. new. This lot contains between four and five acres, and has upon it pure and delightful Water and may well be compared with any lot in the part of the country for health, beauty and convenience as a summer or a permanent residence.

In the county of Robeson, I offer for sale a tract of Land, situate about two miles from Lumberton being good piny land and containing 540 acres. Also, sundry houses and lots in the town of Lumberton, which are as valuable and desirable as any in that village. In all or any part of the above described property, a great bargain will be given. early application be made, as I am anxious to wind up and settle my business in this part of the country. The terms of sale will be made easy and accommodating. I also offer for sale three or four
